SelectGlobal, LLC Recent Activity:

May 15, 2024

The last six weeks have been full of meetings, trips and exploring new opportunities! During this time, we have been finalizing due diligence and working with logistics teams and customs brokers to get an understanding how the Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention Act affects the supply chain of all goods manufactured abroad. More on the Act can be found here.

Thank you for being a SelectGlobal supporter. Enjoy our Spring 2024 updates!

Project Updates

Exciting Progress on Project Daphne:

We are delighted to provide you with an update on our eagerly awaited Project Daphne, a state-of-the-art energy-related manufacturing facility.

While we cannot reveal the ultimate site or location until the incentive process is completed, we can promise you that Project Daphne is making excellent progress. Our committed team has worked relentlessly to bring this visionary concept to life, and we are now closer than ever to revealing the finished result.

Here's a preview of what you can expect from Project Daphne:

1. Cutting-Edge Innovation: We've embraced the most recent breakthroughs in technology, infrastructure and design to provide a genuinely excellent and future-proof experience for all stakeholders.
2. Sustainable Solutions: Sustainability is a key component of Project Daphne, and we have used environmentally conscious approaches throughout the development process to reduce our environmental impact.
3. Unrivaled Accessibility: Project Daphne will provide unparalleled ease and accessibility, making it easier than ever to provide energy-related innovation.

Project Daphne will be a game changer in our business, setting new norms for excellence, efficiency, and use.

Our team is accessible to answer any questions you have about Project Daphne or any of our other services. We appreciate your patience and continuous support as we prepare to present this incredible work.

SelectGlobal, LLC Attends NESAs Site Selection Showcase:

Our team recently had the opportunity to attend the NESA Site Selection Showcase in South Carolina from May 7th to 9th. As experts in bi-lateral foreign direct investment (FDI), we were excited to participate and explore new opportunities for growth and collaboration. This flagship event demonstrated the region's benefits for corporate investment and relocation.

Day 1 Highlights:

The event began with an Industry Celebration, which included a keynote talk from Lieutenant Governor Pamela Evette of South Carolina and representatives from Precise Welding Services. Attendees then went to various Chesterfield County locations, received a tour of ClubMX, and visited the Chesterfield County Development Office.

Day 2 Highlights:

The exciting day kicked off with a breakfast and community presentation at the Marlboro Country Club, followed by site visits around Marlboro County. Michael took a tour of three sites in Marlboro County. One that is nearly turnkey, with over 1,000,000 square feet and 500+ acres, as well as its own water treatment system.

Our team enjoyed lunch and refreshments with the members of Marion County businesses and local government at Abingdon Manor - this luxury accommodation is recognized as a “Classic Country Inn” and has received the prestigious Four Diamond rating for fifteen consecutive years.

The afternoon included wonderful discussions, a visit to Inland Port Dillon, and scaling the 86-foot gantry crane, wrapping up with a networking supper at 21 Main.

Day 3 Highlights:

On the third day, we enjoyed playing the legendary Myrtle Beach Classic golf course at the Dunes Golf and Beach Club.

The NESAs Showcase presented vital insights into South Carolina's thriving business climate and possibilities. SelectGlobal was delighted to meaningfully connect with economic development executives, site selectors, and enterprises looking to expand or relocate in the region.

"This showcase highlighted South Carolina's strategic location, business-friendly policies, and skilled workforce, making it an ideal investment destination for our clients," says Michael Edgar, SelectGlobal's CEO & President. "We look forward to facilitating more cross-border investments."

SelectGlobal expresses its gratitude to the organizers for providing such an interesting and entertaining event. The team hopes that South Carolina's economic connections with overseas enterprises will continue to develop.
