Reflections and Connections:

Kicking Off Fall in the Windy City:

Over the past four weeks, we've hit the ground running—supporting clients on more than 49 active projects spanning market-entry studies, site prospecting, business plan creation, capital raise assistance, and building permitting and outfitting. We've also doubled down on relationship-building: visiting international trade offices and our alliance partners here in Chicago; attending the Transatlantic Business & Investment Conference; meeting with a delegation of companies exploring U.S. market entry, hosted by the German-American Chamber of Commerce at FABTECH; attending "Montana Takes Over Chicago," which showcased opportunities from Montana EDOs; and preparing for what's next.

Looking ahead, we're energized. Next month brings even more engagement: we'll continue our trade office visits, eagerly anticipate Taiwan's "Double Ten" Anniversary Reception, and expect new opportunities to deepen our conversations with international partners—helping smooth the path forward for our clients across development, permitting, and capital strategies.

Warmly,
Michael Edgar,
Founder and CEO, SelectGlobal, LLC
